

KAMLOOPS EXPLORATION GROUP

2018 LECTURE SERIES TOPIC & DATES

All Kamloops Lectures take place at the TRU Activity Centre in the Mountain Room and begin at 7 PM. Free to attend. Parking is free.

January 4 – Phillip Currie - Hunting the Hunters: new discoveries of ‘raptors’ (Dinosauria: Dromaeosauridae) from Alberta

January 18 – Jonathan Driver - Tse’K’wa: The First People in an Ice-Age Landscape

February 1 – John Chapman - The Evolving Metallogeny of the Canadian Cordillera

February 15 – JoAnne Nelson – The Road North –

February 15 - Meet & Greet – Join us at 5:30 PM for light snacks and a cash bar.

March 1 – Kyle Larson - Building the Himalaya: Implications of Tectonometamorphic Discontinuities

March 15 – Rob Young - Subglacial Megaflooding on the Alberta Plain, with Analogies to the Channeled Scablands

April 5 – Melanie Kelman - A Recently Discovered Fumarole Field at the Mount Meager Volcano in Southwest British Columbia

April 19 - TBA