

KAMLOOPS EXPLORATION GROUP

2019 LECTURE SERIES TOPIC & DATES

*All Kamloops Lectures take place at the TRU Activity Centre in the Mountain Room and begin at 7 PM. Free to attend. Parking is free.
Please note special events in red.*

Jan 10 - Catherine Hickson - The "wow" factor - an amazing newly discovered geological feature hidden away in Wells Gray Provincial Park

Jan 24 - Jane McCaw - The Many Categories of Land and What They Mean To Us

Feb 7 - Jim Monger - Did craton movement cause Cordilleran mountain building? The case for a continental bulldozer

Feb 21 - Mitch Mihalynuk - Bedrock Foundations of Kamloops: a story beginning 239 million years ago, gilded in copper and gold, and starring the geochronologically recast Nicola arc

Mar 7 - Robert Young - Connecting the surfaces: Does the topography of BC show connections to the catastrophic ice age floods that ravaged central Washington State?

Mar 27 - Alanna Mitchell - The hidden secrets of our magnet earth
Salmon Arm Comfort Inn (1090 22nd St NE) doors open at 6 PM, lecture at 7 PM

Mar 28 - Alanna Mitchell - The hidden secrets of our magnet earth -
Appreciation Social - Please join us prior to the lecture in the Mountain Room at 5:30 PM for light snacks and a cash bar

Apr 4 - Ray Lett - Exploration Geochemistry 2018 – Proven methods and new techniques

Please note information is subject to change.